Dear Mother:

We have just had a Legenda Board Meeting, which although poorly attended was most inspiring. My only regret is that I haven't more time to spend on the stuff. I really think the book will be good - if enthusiasm counts for anything.

I ought to be writing on my History paper, but I don't want to begin working at this hour of the night, when I'm going to bed in a few minutes; so I'll write to you as usual. I'm at the interesting point where I really don't see how everything is going to get done; so you see I need sleep more than ever.

I've been real good this week, and haven't been up late at all.

I went to Dr. Fuller at last to-day, and made an appointment for Tuesday afternoon. He found several little cavities which need attention; evidently Dr. Sheeran didn't look very carefully; and as you suggested, I'm going to have him do all that needs to be done. It may save worse dentist's bills in the future.

We had an interesting class-meeting yesterday, - elected Baccalaureate Speaker, Honorary members, ~~the~~, voted on some other matters, etc. Our Honorary Member we took in a parade to chapel this morning. She is Miss Shackford, whom I had in H.T. & Sophomore year, the inseparable companion of Miss Sherwood. She is a dear, and we are all crazy about her.

The last three days have been cool, but clear and perfectly lovely. Some day soon I am going for a long walk. Just think - I haven't been on one this year! I feel so cheap when I hear other people rave about the walks they have taken. Miss Johnson, for instance, goes somewhere every day.

I'd better stop now and see about bed. The sooner the better, I say!

With much love,

Mary.

P.S. Sent my laundry off this morning so I think it will reach you all right this week.
